NARRATIVE:

Eric Schultz has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include false ID to a peace officer, forgery, resisting a peace officer, receiving stolen property, possession of controlled substances, transport/sale of controlled substances, child abuse, domestic violence, owning a chop shop, possession of controlled substances while armed, and domestic violence. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 76 month term for child abuse. Schultz was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 14, 2016. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November, 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Schultz qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances while armed is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
